New Church Organization.

At a business meeting of the liberal religious society held last evening after Mr. Skilling's sermon, it was decided to continue to use the name "People's Church;" continue services every Sunday until January, when Mr. Skilling closes his labors at Princeton, and in the meantime make a heroic effort to raise sufficient funds by subscription to secure the services for at least six months of this able and popular young minister, who would be a valuable addition to our literary, artistic and social as well as religious circles. It was also decided to change the hour, so hereafter the services of the People's Church will be held at 11:00 a. m. instead of in the evening.

Chance for a Law Suit

Louis Franks, of North Dixon, while coming over town on his bicycle at one o'clock today was run into by a team and badly injured. The team was driven by a man who lives in Palmyra and who is credited with having run down two or three bicyclers heretofore. Louis was coming south on Galena avenue and had the right of the road. The teamster turned west from Galena avenue onto Everett street and, witnesses say, run Louis into the southwest corner. The horse kicked Louis in the head and he was carried bleeding profusely into the J. F. Sanford residence, where his wound was washed and dressed. The young man feels very indignant at the farmer's treatment and proposes to make him suffer for it. We could not learn the farmer's name.

A Contest in Blood Shedding.

The great shoot is over and Henry Coffey and his men, Wm. Flannigan, John Null, Billy Coffey, jr., John Phalen, James Mipnehan, Arthur Strong, Fred Martin, Jake Hill, and T. J. Hoban banquet tonight at King & Coopers restaurant at the expense of the weary follows of John Cooper. They were: Carl Backus, Bert Null, R. R. Hess, Herbert Martin, George Hoban, Frank Linn, Frank Duffy, John Murphy and Eli Rosenthal. The winning team shot thirteen rabbits, six squirrels, one duck, one chicken and fifty small birds, scoring according to the rating agreed upon 305 points. Capt. Cooper's men bagged twelve rabbits, three squirrels, one duck and nineteen small birds, 175 points. The thrilling incidents of the hunt are many and the boys are expected to start again soon.

—We learn from an exchange that judgments aggregating $2,000 have been obtained by the citizens of Sterling and vicinity against the Sterling Street Railway Co., and Tuesday a sufficient amount of the personal property of that company to satisfy the judgments was sold at Sheriff's sale. What the creditors will do with the poles and iron rails is not stated.

—The second number in the Y. M. C. A. course of lectures and concerts will be given on Friday evening of this week. Robert Nourse, whose lecture on Dr. Jekyl and Mr. Hyde in last year's course is still fresh in the memory of those who heard it, will lecture on "John and Jonathan." Those who heard his lecture last season will not miss this chance of hearing him again.

—Miss Fannie Murphy of this city and J. B. Arnerson, of Aurora, were married last Thursday by Rev. Father McLaughlin. The bride looked very pretty in a dark green dress, and the bridesmaid, Mary E. Murphy, sister of the bride, was dressed in a delicate gray. After the ceremony the table was set for twelve friends and relatives, and the house was beautifully decorated with yellow chrysanthemums.

—All the singers of the city are requested to meet this evening at 7:30 at the Lutheran church to organize a union choir for the Major Hilton meetings, which are to begin December 2. Prof. Fuller, who accompanies Major Hilton, has sent the hymn books, of which he is author, and it is important that several rehearsals should be had. Rev. H. C. Leland has consented to lead them for the committee until Prof. Fuller arrives.

—The cold wave of Saturday covers the lake region, Ohio valley, Mississippi valley, Texas, Indian Territory and New Mexico, throughout which regions the temperature is 15 to 30 degrees lower than Friday. In the South Atlantic states the temperature is high, but the cold wave is moving rapidly in that direction. Over the northern Rocky Mountain region, falling barometer, rapidly rising temperature and gathering clouds show the formation of a storm.

—The last quarterly meeting of the United Young people's Societies of the various Evangelical churches of the city was held last evening at six o'clock in the Baptist church. In the absence of the President, Miss Annie Geisenheimer, Vice President E. B. Raymond presided at the business meeting, which followed a series of devotional and conference exercises. The treasurer, Miss Lydia Garnett, gave a report of the receips and expenditures of the past year, having a balance of between six and seven dollars in her hands. The committee on nominations of officers for the coming year reported the following list, which recommendation was adopted and the officers elected by acclamation as follows: President, John E. Byington; Vice President, Miss Nellie Moore; Secretary, Miss Grace Brubaker; Treasurer, Miss Dora Chiverton; Lookout Committee, Miss Nellie Swartwout, Mrs. L. Sindlingers, George Fonken, Frank Forsyth and Miss Lydia Williamson.

About Croup.

Croup is a terror to young mothers. To post them concerning the first symptoms and treatment, is the object of this item. The first indication of croup is hoarseness. In a child who is subject to croup it may be taken as a sure sign of the approach of an attack. Following this hoarseness is a peculiar rough cough. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even after the rough cough has appeared it will prevent the attack. It has never been known to fail. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by E. M. Bunnell & Co., druggists.

"Orange-Blossom" removes all obstructions and creates a healthy, natural flow of all secretions. Sold ay D. S. Horton, druggist. 6

The Best Plaster.

Dampen a piece of flannel with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bind it on over the seat of pain. It is better than any plaster. When the lungs are sore, such an application on the chest and another on the back, between the shoulder blades, will often prevent pneumonia. There is nothing so good for a lame back or a pain in the side. A sore throat can nearly always be cured in one night by applying a flannel bandage dampened with Pain Balm. 50 cent bottles for sale by E. M. Bunnell & Co., druggists.

THREAT OF A THUG

Bill Cook Menaces the Life of Attorney Jackson.

BOLD DEFIANCE BY THE BRIGAND.

Declares He Will Kill the United States Official If He Does Not Let the Gang Alone—Cherokee Bill Cornered, Wounded and Two of His Comrades Captured—Mississippi Train Robbers Bravely Baffled by an Engineer—Fireman Shot.

MUSKOGEE, I. T., Nov. 19.—Deputy Marshal McGill and posse have had a fight with three of the Cook gang. One marshal was wounded. Cherokee Bill is reported fatally shot and the other two of the gang arrested. Cherokee Bill is the fiercest one of the gang and is one of its main supports. The government has set a price of $250 on his body. United States Attorney Jackson has received a letter from Bill Cook threatening to kill him if he makes any further attempt to exterminate the gang. The force of deputies under Deputy United States Marshal McGill, who were equipped by United States Attorney Jackson at his own expense, and the citizens here are loud in their praise of him. His instructions to the men were to remain in the field until the gang had been either killed or captured.

It was this force that surprised the bandits under Cherokee Bill and made the valiant fight reported above. Cherokee Bill has not yet been captured, though reports say he surely will be, together with the full force he has been leading. One of the two bandits captured during the fight was brought here by Marshal Cobb. His information from the fighting ground is that Cherokee Bill's band is surrounded and can only escape by fighting their way through the deputies' lines, which it is not believed they can succeed in doing. Marshal Cobb believes, however, that there will be another bloody fight.

ENGINEER BAFFLES THE BANDITS.

New Hands at the Business in Mississippi—Fireman Severely Wounded.

MEMPHIS, Nov. 19.—Shortly after midnight an attempt to hold up passenger train No. 5 on the Yazoo and Mississippi Valley road at Panther Run, Miss., was balked by the coolness of Engineer F. A. Honer. Panther Run is a small way station. Soon after nightfall a half dozen strange men entered the hamlet and hung around for an hour or two. Then they disappeared and were not seen again until the train had stopped and was starting out, when one of them appeared on the track ahead, signalling the engineer to stop.

Engineer Honer pulled out the throttle and sent the train through. As it passed the signal light, a half dozen unmasked men stood there, revolver in hand, and all took shots at the locomotive cab. Fireman Cole received a bullet through the arm and is seriously wounded. The men were evidently new at the business. The railway officials are exerting themselves to apprehend the would be robbers.

Wreckers Responsible for a Life.

CROWLEY, La., Nov. 19.—A successful attempt at train-wrecking was perpetrated on the branch road four miles south of Kunice. The obstruction caused the engine, baggage car and passenger coaches to turn over. Fireman S. G. Kiger, was killed and Engineer Joseph M. Auldon seriously injured.

Costly Death of a Tough.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Nov. 19.—At Magdalena, south of this city, E. D. Horn, of the mercantile firm of Horn, Creighton & Graves, and Scott Reed, a cow man, got into a quarrel and commenced shooting at each other. Both are dead. Horn was a fine gentleman and Reed was quarrelsome and had killed several men.

Escaped Prisoners Leave a Defiance.

CANON CITY, Colo., Nov. 19.—Two prisoners, Hutchins and Furman, have escaped from the county jail. They entered the sheriff's office and stole four revolvers and a certificate of deposit for $200. They left a note saying whoever followed them had better come prepared to shoot.

EIGHT OF TEN MEN DROWNED.

Barge Capsizes and Buries Them Under Tons of Rock.

PUNTA GORDA, Fla., Nov. 19.—An accident occurred in Charlotte harbor by which eight men lost their lives. Ten workmen were asleep on a barge loaded phosphate when it suddenly capsized, with burying the men under tons of rock. Two of them managed to escape, but eight were lost. The list of dead is as follows: S. W. M. Mitchell, A. Parker, Wiley Walker, Tom Vann, Will Vann, Dave Frauslyn, Berry Jones and Jack Spencer.

Work of the Knights of Labor Assembly.

NEW ORELANS, Nov. 19.—There is good authority for the statement that the press committee of the Knights of Labor has been suppressing facts, and that the real work of the session is not being very fully given to the public through the official press committee. The business now in hand, and which took up most of Saturday's session, is the cases of fifteen subordinate lodges which had been suspended. They are lodges of miners, and their representatives had not concluded their statement at adjournment Saturday. It is stated that election of officers will take place today. Mrs. Sarah Durwood, of the W. C. T. U., has addressed the convention on the principles of her society.

The Only Way They Could Reach Him.

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., Nov. 19.—E. H. Schaefer, a young attorney, of the firm of Eggers & Schaefer, has been arrested and is to be taken to Salem, Marion county, Ills., on a charge of embezzlement. In settling an estate at Salem he charged attorney's fees of $3,000, deducted them and paid over the balance. He then moved to this state. The heirs were dissatisfied with the fee and, as he would not abate it and there was no other way to reach him, the heirs charged him with embezzlement.

Passenger Rate War Looming Up.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 19.—The Journal says that notice has been mailed to Chairman Caldwell, of the Western Passenger association, of the withdrawal of the Missouri Pacific; that this action will dissolve the association, be followed by other withdrawals and probably a general western passenger rate war.

COVER THE WHOLE GROUND.

Discussions in the W. C. T. U. Are on All Current Issues.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 19.—The W. C. T. U. debates probably cover more at the present convention than they ever did before. Total abstinence, which was the fundamental principle of the organization, is now but one of dozens of subjects, all the way from finance to suicide that find debaters on the floor. Some routine business was transacted at the second session, and after considerable discussion the president was given authority to appoint a vice president who should perform some of Miss Willard's many duties, the latter lady having the privilege of "paying the freight."

Among the subjects upon which delegates spoke during the session were narcotics, temperance literature, relation of capital and labor to temperance in which capital was represented as imperious, insolent and aggressive and labor as feeble and helpless. The speaker on this subject included the increase of suicide in her remarks; also the national finances advocating the issuance of enough money to hire every idle man in the country on public work. Greetings were brought from the Federation of Labor by Robert Baudlon, and speeches were made on parliamentary usage and the press.

No business was done yesterday, but many of the visitors occupied city pulpits. The feature of the day was the annual sermon which was delivered by President Bashford, of Ohio Wesleyan university. He spoke of the government of the cities as the problem of the day, referring to the corruption in New York city municipal affairs, and charging that $15,000,000 was stolen yearly there. He said that the inequalities of wealth as they exist threatened our civilization and that though individualism was a good thing we had carried it too far. He closed by saying that prohibition would be the ultimate remedy and that the way to secure that was through woman suffrage. A rousing suffrage meeting was held, presided over by Susan B. Anthony.

DECIDED A NOVEL CASE.

One Labor Organization Wants Protection from Another and Can't Get It.

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—There are two bodies of "union" carpenters in this city, but one of which belongs to the Building Trades council and is therefore the regular "union" body; the other body therefore is looked upon as "non-union" and treated as such. The "irregular" body asked a perpetual injunction against the one connected with the Building Trades council to prevent the "regular" union men from preventing the "irregulars" from working by gathering in mobs and forcing said irregulars to stay away from the buildings where they were employed.

Judge Tuley has just denied the application. He said the court could not indict a mob; that the only remedy the "irregular" had was to have the men who assaulted him indicted (a method that is practically impossible, from the multiplicity of suits that would follow); that if there was no other remedy it was the fault of the law; that a labor union could not go into court to protect its members in their right to work. The complaining unions therefore can get no relief, and they will be subject to the boycott and other mans of preventing them from working until they become "regulars."

Fight for Indiana Quarries.

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—A bill has been filed in the circuit court of the United States here involving the title and possession of the works and property of the Bedford Stone Quarries company in Lawrence county, Ind. The bill is drawn in the name of William L. Breyfogle and others, the original owners of the quarries and works, against John R. Walsh, the Equitable Trust company and others. The gist of the suit appears to be a struggle over $1,000,000 worth of property which the complainants allege may fall into the hands of Mr. Walsh for something over $500,000 advanced not as an outside loan, but by him as a partner in the enterprise for the development of the quarries, in return for which he was to have a 50 per cent. interest in the property.

Insurance Swindle Unearthed.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 19.—By the arrest of H. H. Holmes, alias Howard, in Boston, a swindling scheme has been unearthed by detectives of the Fidelity Mutual Life Insurance association of this city. On Sept. 3 last the corpse of a man was found at 1316 Callowhill street, this city, and was buried by the coroner under the name of B. F. Pitzel. Now it appears that the corpse was a bogus one. The corpse was brought from New York, surrounded with evidences of accidental death at the above number here, falsely identified and the insurance collected.

The Charge Against Col. Coit.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 19.—The Commercial Gazette's special from Washington Court House says the mayor, in support of the coroner's verdict, has sent a letter to Governor McKinley inviting and urging him to come to Washington Court House to investigate personally the charges of murder against Colonel Coit and Sheriff Cook. The mayor asserts that the "mob" outside the court house at the time of the firing did not exceed twenty five, mostly boys, and that Coit fired without ascertaining how much danger he was in.

Election Crookedness at St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 19.—As a result of numerous charges and countercharges of fraud committed on last election day Howard A. Blossom and Turner T. Lewis, appointed by the Democratic city central committee to select a committee of eight reputable citizens, equally divided between the parties, have announced the appointment of a committee composed of eight of the most prominent men of both parties. The committee will have the management of a fund to be used in making a thorough investigation.

Johnson Breaks Some More Records.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 19.—Over the new asphalt track at Fountain Ferry, John J. Johnson, the world renowned cyclist, broke the five, four, three and two miles standing start wheel records, and the two mile flying start record. He made the five miles in 10:22 3-5, the four miles in 8:16 2-5, the three miles in 6:09 and the two miles in 4:01.

Wing Shooting at Chicago.

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—Dr. Carver won two of three contests at the wing shoot at Burnside. In the contest between Carver and Charles Grimm, of Clear Lake, Ia., Grimm won by 87 to 84 for Carver. Carver defeated Mott, of Chicago, by a score of 95 to 89, and Roland by 33 to 29, the latter match being for thirty-five birds.

COMMITTEE CHIEFS

A Look Ahead to the Next National Congress.

MEN WHO MAY BE PUT IN FRONT,

Provided That Reed Occupies the Speaker's Chair—Pressing Questions That Will Make Banking and Currency and Coinage, Weights and Measures Take High Rank in Importance—Chances of Republican Statesmen Discussed.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Democratic senators who are at present in the city decline almost without exception to discuss the probable plans of the Democratic leaders in the senate with reference to the supplemental tariff bills at the forthcoming short session of congress. The most of them content themselves with saying that they have had no opportunity for party conference, and they do not wish at this time to express personal opinions. It would seem probable from this that a general Democratic conference among the party members in the senate is among the strong probabilities soon after the convening of the next session, for the purpose of determination of this point. There is a minority on the Democratic side of the chamber which is opposed to any further efforts at tariff legislation by the present congress.

Voorhees and Harris Not Talking.

It is also thought possible that the result of the late elections may have influinced others to take this view. Senator Voorhees, chairman of the senate committee on finance, declines to talk for publication on all subjects connected with congress or politics. Senator Harris, also a Democratic member of this committee, contented himself with referring an Associated Press reporter who accosted him on this subject to his remarks upon the point before the adjournment of the last session. It is recalled that he then announced his purpose of trying to get the supplemental bills up at the earliest opportunity in the short session.

Committees in Next Congress.

The house committees which are expected to be of greatest importance in the next congress are the ways and means, appropriations, rules, banking and currency, coinage, weights and measures, rivers and harbors and public buildings and grounds. The first three named always head the list in order of importance. The others are expected to assume importance in next congoess because of the especial conditions which will prevail during that congress. The banking committee will certainly be one of the most important committees in the entire list, if there should be an effort, as is hinted there may be, to revise the currency laws and change the present system. Such legislation as this would lift the committee dealing with it for the time alongside the ways and means committee.

Another That Will Rank High.

The probability of an effort to secure silver legislation and the probability that the Republican party when it comes into power in the house will want to formulate a policy on this question will have the effect also of advancing the coinage committee to a position of first rank. Only three of the old Republican members of the committee on banking and currency are re-elected. They are Walker of Massachusetts, Russell of Connecticut and Johnson of Indiana. Walker is the senior Republican member. He has from the beginning of his congressional career taken an active interest in financial questions, and his chances of securing the chairmanship would be the best.

Reed May Have a Policy.

Of the six present Republican members of the committee on coinage, weights and measures, five have been re-elected to the Fifty-fourth congress. They are in the order named: Stone of Pennsylvania, Johnson of North Dakota, Dingley of Maine, Hager of Iowa, and Aldrich of Illinois. Stone would naturally become chairman of the committee, but it is suggested that in case of Reed becoming speaker he might have a personal policy with reference to silver which he would want to pursue, and in that event might want Dingley as the leader of that committee.

BURROWS FOR WAYS AND MEANS

In Case He Does Not Go to the Senate—Other Possibilities.

In the natural order of events J. C. Burrows, of Michigan, will become chairman of the ways and means committee, with Reed in the speaker's chair, and there is little doubt that he will be given this important post which carries with it the Republican leadership on the floor of the house if he fails in his ambition to succeed Senator Patten to a seat in the senate. With Reed in the speaker's chair and Burrows in the senate there would be only three Republican members of the present committee left to choose from, these being Payne of New York, Dalzell of Pennsylvania, and Hopkins of Illinois.

D. B. Henderson of Iowa is the ranking Republican member of the appropriations committee, with Cogswell of Massachusetts, Bingham of Pennsylvania, Dingley of Maine, Grout of Vermont and Cannon of Illinois coming in the order named. There is likely to be a conflict between the first and last named of this list. While Henderson is now the ranking Republican member of the committee Cannon was chairman in the Fifty-first congress and will probably want to have his old place back.

It is possible that neither Cannon nor Henderson will get the place, for in the event of Burrows becoming chairman of the ways and means committee the probabilities are strong that the east would demand the chairmanship of the next most important committee, which would be that of appropriations. In that contingency Cogswell's chances for being promoted to the head of the committee would be excellent.

If Reed becomes speaker of the house the Republican membership of the committee on rules will probably be composed of himself and the chairman of the appropriations and ways and means committees. He pursued this plan in the Fifty-first congress and there is reason to believe that he would revive it rather than imitate Crisp by more generally distributing the honors.

Correspondents Not Included.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—It turns out that the decision against the sugar trust recalcitrant witnesses does not include the special newspaper correspondents whose articles resulted in the senate investigation. A decision is yet to be made in their cases as to whether they must stand trial for contempt in refusing to answer questions put by the senate committee. Their cases will be called up soon and pushed to a conclusion.

Wright Stands by His Report.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—"It is impregnable and the conclusions reached by the strike commissioners were based upon good, solid evidence." This utterance referred to the recent report of the United States strike commission, and was made by Labor Commissioner Carroll D. Wright, and was called forth by his attention being called to the Railway Age article (printed in these dispatches). He said the commissioners would not reply until they received a copy of the Railway Age article.

Withdrawn to Bup Bonds With.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—Withdrawals of gold from the sub-treasuries in New York and elsewhere, presumably to be used in the purchases of bonds, aggregate $2,058,025.

MANIFESTO OF THE MAGNATES.

Fred Pfeffer, Buckenberger and Barnie Put Under the Ban.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—The result of the recent deliberations of the National League magnates is embodied in a manifesto, drafted by a committee of four appointed for that purpose, and made public, which reviews the history of base ball from 1876 down to date, and claims that territorial rights—one club, and only one, to each city—has been the fundamental principle of that history; says that today there is treachery within the lines and that men who have been the beneficiaries of the game have been identifying themselves with schemes to weaken and perhaps destroy the "splendid fabric of the national game;" that the confidence of the public is imperilled by these schemes, and that the obligations of contracts, the rights of reserve and the territorial rights of clubs must and shall be upheld at any cost.

It having come to the knowledge of the National League that men identified therewith have been co-operating in the formation of clubs to conflict with the national agreement the committee suggests that the national board declare A. C. Buckenberger, William Barnie and Fred Pfeffer ineligible to employment in any capacity by National League clubs, and that they be suspended, such suspension to remain in force until they square themselves, and in the event that they do not square themselves they shall be forever debarred. Similar action is recommended in case of any others following their example in the future. This is signed by Byrne, Brush, Hart and Young.

In accordance with the above the national board has passed sentence on the foregoing named men in the terms suggested. A letter from the Western and Eastern leagues is also made public referring to the mooted organization of new base ball aggregations and asking the National League to take the action it has taken.

FUNERAL OF CON RIORDAN.

Comments of Various People on Fitzsimmons' Fatal Punch.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Nov. 19.—The funeral of Con Riordan, who died after having been knocked out by Rob Fitzsimmons at the Grand Opera House in this city, was held at the undertaking rooms of James Mullin & Son. It was attended by the members of the Fitzsimmons Variety company, and a large number of sporting men. The services were conducted by Rev. A. S. Durston, secretary of the local Young Men's Christian association.

Lawyer Emanuel Friend, of New York, Fitzsimmons' counsel was here and left with Fitz and his company for Boston. He will return for the inquest Thursday. He said it would take expert testimony to account for Riordan's death and felt sure Fitz would be acquitted. Telegrams from points where Corbett, Sullivan and others are, quote them all as positive that Riordan's physical condition was not sound, as asserted by the physicians here who held the autopsy. They all say that Riordan's drinking habits were such that he could not have been sound.

Fritz himself said he felt like he would not care even to put on a glove again, but the affair would not prevent his meeting Corbett. It was absurd to suppose he would have hit Riordan to hurt him. Dr. Tanner, of Indianapolis, who has some positive ideas on psychological subjects, is quoted as saying that he would not be surprised if the autopsy was what killed Riordan, having been held too soon. But the fact is that the doctors found a clot of blood at the base of Riordan's brain, caused, they held, by the shock of the blow.

Silver the Paramount Issue.

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—The Woman's Republican club of Illinois gave a banquet to Mrs. Luey Flower, recently elected trustee of the state university. Speeches were made by Mrs. J. Ellen Foster, Judge Collins, Judge Haney, Mrs. Flower and others. Mrs. Foster spoke of women in the western campaign. In the course of her remarks she referred to the financial question, saying that the great states of the west were deeply interested in it—the most unsettled question today in American politics. Mrs. Foster said she wanted all her hearers to think about this question. The tariff, she said, we all agree upon; the silver question divides the people of the republic and must be met.

Horses, Fat Stock and Poultry.

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—Thursday evening will witness the opening of the American Horse, Fat Stock and Poultry show at the combined new Jonathan Clark building and Tattersall's. All the arrangements and inducements are upon a much more liberal scale than has ever before been attempted. The fat stock and poultry departments of the show will represent wide, intelligent and wealth-giving competition. In the heavy horse department the French, Belgian, Clydesdale, English shire, and grade draft classes will be well reprented. while other styles of horses will be there in large numbers.

Ives Wins the Billiard Match.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Ives wins the billiard tournament. The totals for the six nights' play stands—Ives, 3,600; Schaefer, 3,074. The score in Saturday night's play stood—Ives, 600; Schaefer, 555; averages—Ives, 60; Schaefer, 58 1-3; highest runs—Ives, 331; Schaefer, 235; grand averages—Ives, 48 20-37; Shaefer, 41 20-37.

Gov. Waite Is to Lecture.

DENVER, Nov. 19.—Governor Waite has decided to go upon the lecture platform. He will make a short tour in the west before his term expires, delivering his first lecture at St. Louis Nov. 19 and 20, going from there to Chicago.

FEARFULLY FATAL.

The Earthquake That Has Just Visited Italy.

DEAD AND WOUNDED BY SCORES.

Forty-Seven Meet a Dreadful Fate in a Church in Which They Had Taken Refuge —Twenty-eight Others in the List of the Lost—Speck of War on the Mexico-Guatemala Horizon—Sultan Acts on the Armenian Massacre.

ROME, Nov. 19.—The earthquakes in Sicily and southern Italy caused considerable damage to the telegraph lines and details of the phenomena are coming to hand slowly. It is known, however, that the province of Reggio di Calabria suffered the severest damage by the seismic disturbances. Little damage was done in Reggio, the capital of the province, but there was great loss of life and much damage to property elsewhere in the province. Seventeen communes were involved in the disturbance, the centers of which were in the vicinity of Palmi, twenty-one miles northwest of Reggio, and Bagnara, on the gulf of Gioja, almost directly opposite Punta del Faro, Sicily.

Terrible Fatality in a Church.

The village of Procopio, near Palmi, was almost entirely destroyed. Here sixty persons were killed. Forty-seven of these met death in a church to which they had fled for refuge. Their bodies are still in the ruins. At Bagnara seven persons were killed. Eight lost their lives at Mamerlino and San Eufemia, being crushed to death, while many others were injured. The inhabitants of these places are obliged to camp in the open air. Prime Minister Crispi has sent a large sum of money for the relief of the sufferers and has placed two vessels at the disposal of the prefect at Bagnara. In the Calabrian towns of Triparni and Mileto many houses were destroyed and a number of persons injured.

Great Seams in the House Walls.

Much damage was also done in the adjacent province of Catanzaro. The residents of Messina were in great fear of a renewal of the shocks and passed the night camped out in the squares of the city, in railway carriages and on board vessels lying in the harbor. Renewed shocks were felt Saturday and yesterday at Milazzo, eighteen miles west of Messina. So severe were the movements of the earth that great seams appeared in the wall of many houses. The inhabitants of this place are still badly frightened and remain camped in the open spaces.

SIGNS OF WAR IN MEXICO.

The Guatemala Difficulty Looks Critical Just at This Time.

CITY OF MEXICO, Nov. 19.—The outlook on the Guatemalan border is decidedly warlike. Troops are all along the line and the feeling at Comitan is in favor of fight. The Chapana are all willing to shoulder muskets. An agent of the Guatemalan government has appeared at Comitan trying to buy horses. At Vera Cruz the Nineteenth Mexican infantry has been forwarded to Tobasco and 250,000 cartridges have been shipped south.

The national arms factory here is very busy turning out munitions of war, and from Mazatlan comes the news that the steamship Jandro is ready for her armament and will soon take 1,000 soldiers to the Guateamlan frontier. The war fever is high at San Cristobal de las Caras and volunteers are offering their services. Altogether the situation is apparently one that may result in war at a moment's notice.

THAT CRIME IN ARMENIA.

Further Dispatches Tending to Confirm the Reported Massacre.

LONDON, Nov. 19.—A dispatch to The Daily News from Constantinople says that the energetic action of Sir Philip Currie, the British ambassador to Turkey, in protesting against the treatment of the Armenians has caused consternation among the members of the Turkish government. Everything has been done to keep secret the facts of the outrages. Information from various sources tends to prove that the Sassun affair was most serious.

A dispatch to The Times from Vienna says that a letter has been received there from Smyrna reporting that Zeki Pasha, a Turkish marshal, with a detachment of Nizams and a field battery, massacred 2,000 Armenians at Sassun. The bodies of the dead were left unburied and their presence has caused an outbreak of cholera.

The sultan has decided to send a commission composed of three members of his military household and one civilian to Sassun for the purpose of making an impartial inquiry into the outrages on Armenians. The latest news is to the effect that many of the Armenians who were supposed to have been killed fled from the soldiery and are now returning.

The last appeal says that the Armenians do not wish to see more of their territory annexed to Russia, but if Great Britain is unable to help them they will be compelled to look to Russia, under whose yoke they would be better off than under the yoke of Turkey.

Had Evidently Played Football.

ALMA, Mich., Nov. 19.—The Alma college girls became so fascinated over the Rugby football that they determined to have a game themselves, and they formed two elevens. They had not a football, so they stole that belonging to the boys, and at night after the lights were out cleared the big dining-room for a game, and no less than seven panes of glass were found smashed next morning and the big chandelier in the center of the room was a wreck, while all over the floor were scraps of dress goods, hairpins and other evidences of feminine "scrimmages."

Passes to Labor Union Man.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 19.—The anti free pass rules have been promulgated by the railways agreeing thereon, and among those who lose their free traveling as a matter of course are the labor union leaders. No passes, annual or time, are to be granted to officers or members of the unions. In cases of emergency a trip pass may be issued at the discretion of the general managers.

ONE WOMAN'S SECRET OF BEAUTY.

Baths In the Blood of Maidens, For Which Hundreds Were Put to Death.

Paris has been edified by a work treating of the life and proceedings of a lady of the sixteenth century who carried her care for her beauty to the very utmost limits. This is not a fairy tale, but a sober, historical fact, backed by many official documents of undoubted authenticity, and the lady's amiable weakness is described with a wealth of detail and forcible simplicity of description that are apt to turn the reader sick.

The lady in question was named Elizabeth Bathori, Countess Nadasdi, who married at the age of 15 in 1595 Count Francois Nadasdi, who was not of too mild a nature himself, as, when his wife complained one day that her maid had been impertinent, he ordered the erring handmaiden stripped, smeared with honey and laid on a wasps' nest, from the effects of which gentle admonition she subsequently died. The Countess Elizabeth was left a widow in 1604 and began simply at first to try to keep up the rigorous discipline enforced by her late husband. Unhappily one day she struck her waiting maid and so wounded her that her mistress' hands were covered with blood. When they were washed, the countess remarked that her hands were whiter and the skin more supple and firm, and thenceforth her naturally cruel nature was spurred by the frenzied desire to retain her waning beauty at any price.

Odd though it may seem in the present day, she used as a cosmetic from that time on a bath of human blood, and the tradition goes that anything so superb in its brilliant fairness as her complexion cannot be imagined. She murdered all her waiting maids one by one, aided by three accomplices, her old nurse being one of them, and when she could get no women to enter her service she coolly sent her emissaries to kidnap the peasant girls of the neighborhood. At last, however, the ghastly scandal rose to such a pitch that even Hungary in the middle ages could not afford to close its ears to the wail of bereaved families, and the culprit's first cousin, governor of the province, entered the castle on Christmas eve, 1610, to inquire into the truth of the terrible stories and discovered his fair and honored relative, her chin propped by her exquisite hand, calmly watching the death agonies of three girls, while her attendants were filling a bath with the lifeblood that was to preserve her beauty. The countess herself was too great a personage to incur capital punishment, but for 30 years she was shut up in solitary confinement in the castle of Cseibhe, in Hungary, where she finally starved herself to death. As for her accomplices, they had their hands cut off and were subsequently burned at the stake, as, being common people, there was no reason for sparing their lives.

It is said this fair dame sacrificed 600 girls to her radiance of skin, but the biographer states soberly that documentary evidence exists of the murder of only 250. Whether in after years she considered 30 years of solitary confinement too high a price to pay for six years of unimpaired beauty it is hard to say, but the inference is that she did, since she killed herself.—Paris Letter in Philadelphia Telegraph.

Husband—I am going to bring the young barrister home with me this evening.

Wife (with a bevy of marriageable daughters)—Very good! (Rings the bell. The cook appears.) Marie, we are having a visitor this evening. I shall be glad if you will prepare us a nice claret cup.

Husband—He is a most agreeable young fellow—a general favorite, in fact.

Wife (rings)—Marie, please make a few tarts as well.

Husband—I am told his young wife is just as nice and amiable as he is.

Wife (rings)—Marie, never mind the tarts and the claret cup. We shall only require some beer this evening.—Dorfbarbier.

A Yarn of Two Schooners.

They were spinning yarns in the barge office. "I remember that a long while ago there were built in Calais at the same time two sister schooners," said Captain Dimmock. "They were two masters and just alike, both handsome vessels for that day. One of them was named the July Fourth and the other the Fourth of July. They both loaded with lumber and sailed out of Calais the same day, bound for the same port. They had not been out many days when in a thick fog they came into collision. The Fourth of July was smashed to pieces and lost. The July Fourth survived and is doing business along the coast yet. I see her occasionally."—Portland Press.

A RETIRED BUSINESS WOMAN.

A Page From Her History.

The important experiences of others are interesting. The following is no exception: "I had been troubled with heart disease 25 years, much of that time very seriously. For five years I was treated by one physician continuously. I was in business, but obliged to retire on account of my health. A physician told my friends that I could not live a month. My feet and limbs were badly swollen, and I was indeed in a serious condition when a gentleman directed my attention to Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, and said that his sister, who had been afflicted with heart disease, had been cured by the remedy, and was again a strong, healthy woman. I purchased a bottle of the Heart Cure, and in less than an hour after taking the first dose I could feel a decided improvement in the circulation of my blood. When I had taken three doses I could move my ankles, something I had not done for months, and my limbs had been swollen so long that they seemed almost putrified. Before I had taken one bottle of the New Heart Cure the swelling had all gone down, and I was so much better that I did my own work. On my recommendation six others are taking this valuable remedy."—Mrs. Morgan, 569 W. Harrison St., Chicago, Ill.

Nothing to Say

Eugene Field has in his imagination interviewed the leading Democratic politicians and here is the result:

"Nothing at all to say, boys—nothing at all to say!
Things seem to be a-booming, and this is my busy day;
I'm taking stock on sugar, canned salmon, pickles, flour,
Dried peaches, olives, catsup, fresh apples sweet and sour;
I've books to post, and checks to sign, and goods to pack and weigh—
So I've nothing at all to say, boys—nothing at all to say!" —Franklin MacVeagh.

"No'hin' at all to say, boys—nothin' at all to say!
I'm willin' to set an' bide my time for things to come my way.
You've run the state to suit ye and you're in a likely fix,
But you need'nt call on Uncle Bill till the summer of '96;
So trot along and let me sleep under my stack of hay—
Nothin' at all to say, boys—nothin' at all to say!" —William R. Morrison

"Nothing at all to say, boys—nothing at all to say!
m busy hunting missals and books along the quay;
Sorry to hear you've got yourselves in such a howdydo—
Things were somewhat different in the fall of '92!
You sprained your ankles and lost your bets on what I did that day—
So I've nothing at all to say, boys—nothing at all to say!" —Benj. T. Cable.

"Nothin' at all to say, John Tanner, nothin' at all to say!
When voters get their backs up they gin'rally has their way.
They got their backs up once afore—in eighteen ninety-two.
An' the time that they elected me wuz the time they sot on you!
An' now, 'ease they want Cullom an' do not want MacVeagh—
Why, I've nothin' at all to say, boys, nothin' at all to say!" —John M. Palmer.

THE WEATHER

The following is the weather forecast telegraphed us at 9:20 o'clock a. m. today from the government observatory at Chicago:

Fair tonight; colder in extreme southern portion tonight. Tuesday fair and warmer.

—Dr. Mahlon Hutchinson, for many years located in Chicago, left Friday to locate permanently in Washington, where he will be associated with Dr. W. A. Hammond in the latter's private hospital. Dr. Hutchinson had a large practice here, and in addition was local medical examiner for five of the largest life insurance companies in the country.—Chicago Herald.

Dr. Hutchinson resided in Dixon many years and married Miss Katie Cumins.

—In the national Democratic platform in 1896 there should be a plank declaring for the abolishment of all protective tariff and all tariff for revenue and declaring for a direct tax on property for the maintenance of the national government.—Fulton Journal.

That's right, neighbor. Might as well "die for an old sheep as a lamb." Furthermore, if your party does not pay any more attention in the future than it has in the past to platforms it does not make much difference what you put in it.

A Fatal Mistake.

Mrs. Fitz-Andrews—Mrs. Rashleigh is opposing your nomination bitterly. Can't you conciliate her in any way?

Mrs. Talbot-Lee—It is impossible. Twenty-four years ago I said that her baby was small for its age.—Pick Me Up —The Art Amateur probably has never given two more attractive color plates than "The Boot-black," by J G. Brown, and "The Old Home by the Roadside," by D. F. Hasbrouck, which appear in the November issue. This very practical art magazine, however, by no means depends on its color plates alone for its popularity. What most conduces to its extraordinary success is that by giving a profusion of working designs, with easily understood directions for carrying them out, it enables so many young people, of both sexes, to earn a living by painting, carving, designing and illustrating. No person of artistic tastes, who wishes to turn them to profit, can afford to be without this sumptuous periodical.

The Famous Fox Bros. English Pantomime and Novelty Co. is billed for Dixon Saturday evening, Nov. 24. The following is from the Daily Standard Sterling, Nov. 17:

Fox Bros. Pantomime and Novelty Company appeared at the Academy last night in "Fun on the Quiet," and it is rightly named, as there is no end to the fun, and the first two acts are very quiet, no one making any noise except the audience with their applause. The performance of "Slackey" as a Chinamen, on a slack wire, in the second act was as good as anything of its kind ever seen here. "Fun on the Quiet" is a very funny skit, being full of ludicrous and amusing situations and mechanical effects and something suited to the taste of the majority of Sterling's theatre goers.

—Pauline Hall and her opera company will present "Dorcas" at the Chicago Opera House at the conclusion of the Stuart Robson engagement. This piece has achieved a success wherever it has been presented and is said to be the brightest and most artistic musical skit which has recently been put before the public.

Fox Bros. Pantomime and Novelty Co. at the Opera House Saturday night, next. Prices 35 and 50 cents.
